

Completing Your Profile

Your Jane Nation profile is really your passport to finding new friends throughout the community. To add to or edit your profile, first go to “My Jane” in the main navigation from the home page (shown).

The screenshot shows the Jane Nation website interface. At the top, the logo features a stylized tree with the words 'Jane Nation' inside, and a woman standing at its base. To the right of the logo, the text reads 'JANE NATION THE WORLD ACCORDING TO WOMEN.' In the top right corner, the user 'jane smith' is logged in, with links for 'Edit', 'Friends', 'Conversations (1)', and 'Sign out'. Below this is a search bar with the text 'Search this site' and a 'GO!' button. A 'Search' button and a 'TAKE A SITE TOUR' link are also present. The main navigation menu includes 'HOME', 'MY JANE' (highlighted with a red dashed circle), 'SISTERHOODS', 'POWDER ROOM', 'JANE NETWORK', and 'JANE EFFECT'. The user profile section on the left shows a silhouette of a woman's head, the text 'WELCOME BACK, JANE!', a profile picture of a woman with long red hair, and the name 'jane smith, 35'. Below the profile picture is a bio: 'Jacksonville, FL Jane Test (user name: JaneSmith) is a test account that was created during the Jane Nation demo on Monday April the 20th. She will be used to test out the Jane Nation community web site as new features'. The main content area has a 'Welcome Back Jane!' header, followed by a paragraph about summer fashion. Below this is a 'SISTERHOODS' section with three featured topics: 'Caregiver' (with a heart icon), 'Changing With Your Child' (with a child icon), and 'Empty Nesters' (with a bird icon). Each topic includes a brief description and a 'Leave Group' link. At the bottom, there are 'Recent Forums' sections for each topic, with links to forum threads and a 'More' link.

My Jane – Gateway to Your Activities and Profile

Here you'll see everything going on in your personal Jane Nation. Conversations you're engaged in, media you've uploaded, posts you've created and the like, it's all right here.

- If you select “View Public Profile” you'll see what others see when they click on your link.
 - If you select “Edit Profile” you'll see other details that you can add to your profile.

The screenshot shows the Jane Nation website interface for a user named Jane Smith. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the site logo and tagline "JANE NATION THE WORLD ACCORDING TO WOMEN." The user's name "jane smith" is displayed along with links for "Edit", "Friends", "Conversations (1)", and "Sign out". A search bar and a "GO!" button are also present. Below the navigation bar, a menu includes "HOME", "MY JANE", "SISTERHOODS", "POWDER ROOM", "JANE NETWORK", and "JANE EFFECT". The main content area is divided into several sections: "JANE SMITH" with a profile picture and links for "View Public Profile", "Edit Profile", and "Change avatar"; "My Conversations" with a list of messages including "Email Test", "Hey, Hey!", "Did you Get Email", and "Hey Jane Smith"; "MY JOURNAL" with a list of blog posts; "MY MEDIA" with a list of media items; and "MY FAVORITES" with a message indicating no favorites are identified. A "My Friends' Activity" section is partially visible at the bottom. A red dashed circle highlights the "MY JANE" menu item, and a red arrow points from it to the "View Public Profile" link in the user's profile section.

Editing Your Profile

When you select “Edit Profile” you’ll come to a page that looks like this, it’s called “Profile Options” and is the first tab on the page.

EDIT YOUR PROFILE

Your profile is 95% Complete

Go ahead, introduce yourself. We'd love to know more about you so all the Janes can get to know you a little better. This will help you find common ground and see where you share interests, challenges and experiences with other Janes.

There are no right or wrong answers, and no amount of info that is too long or too short. We think you'll find that our Janes have a lot in common and can celebrate the differences that make us the individuals we've worked so hard to become. All we ask is that you be authentic and open. After all, that's what Jane Nation is all about.

Don't forget you can use the Privacy Options page to decide how much information you would like to be displayed in your public profile.

Finding Friends

Now you're ready to find and make new friends, and they can find you, too. If you'll scroll up to the top of the page and click on "Jane Network" we'll show you what we mean...

Finding Friends

Halfway down the page on the left, you'll see a panel called "find new friends." As you'll see, a lot of the things you shared can now be used by yourself and others to make acquaintances based on things like where you live and the groups you've joined. Pretty cool, huh?
