

Starting a Conversation

You can start a conversation with another member anywhere you see their icon throughout the site. Just look for the little “” symbol below their avatar, click it and you’re ready to go.

One place you’ll find them is on your “My Jane” page in the “My Friends” area.

The main content area is divided into several sections:

- MY FRIENDS: A green box containing three avatars: Elizabeth Dukes, Glorjazz, and Lisa Beatty. Below the avatars is a link that says "View all friends and invitations".
- JANE SMITH: A pink box showing the user's profile picture and options to "View Public Profile", "Edit Profile", and "Change avatar". It also indicates "our profile is 95% Complete".
- My Status: A pink box with the text "sittin' and chillin' at Thu, May 14 2009 3:38 PM" and a "SUBMIT" button.
- My Conversations: A red box listing recent messages with titles like "Email Test", "Hey, Hey!", "Did you Get Email", and "Hey Jane Smith".
- MY JOURNAL: A purple box with a list of journal entries and a "View all blog posts" link.
- MY MEDIA: A blue box with a list of media items and a "View all media" link.
- MY FAVORITES: A green box with a message "You have not yet identified any favorite posts." and a "View more" link.
- My Friends' Activity: A red box showing recent activity, including a post by Elizabeth Dukes and a new friendship between Lisa Beatty and Katrine Strickland.

Starting a Conversation

Another place to start a conversation is in the Jane Network.
The other icon (the ones on the left) will also take you to that member's profile.

JANE NETWORK

Want to find out if your best Janes are online? Maybe meet some new ones? The Jane Network is where you can find out who's here and what's happening in the nation and beyond. Check out the calendar, find a Jane, suggest an event or invite a friend to join.
